

Dolly's Not A Sheep

I walked into the sea
It pushed me back again
I lay on the beach and gathered up my strength
Staring at the waves for hours
And then...
I learned to swim

I looked at the wall
The wall was much too high
I threw up a rope
Discovered I could climb
The wind is shaking me
But that's just fine
I feel alive

So fly high - it's your life
Fly high - it's your time

If you're not a sheep
Then break out of the pen
They've locked you in

'Cause you're not a sheep
So live your life, not their's
