

In Your Hands

The picture on the wall
I could say it says it all (I don't think so)
What I mean to say, is that I'll say nothing, just think

In your hands
The words that you believe
In your hands
Give me something to say

When I think of you
Sometimes it it makes me feel so sad
And now, I find it hard to force my feelings into words

In your hands
The words that you believe
In your hands
I hear them, and I see
In your hands
Give me something to say

One night you came to me
And you inspired me
A circle made of late
A message in the night

Yeah, yeah yeah!
