

'Something Stupid'

They're at the table
Wondering where he's gone and got to now
It's just like him
They hope he hasn't gone and done 'something stupid'
That's not like him
But, today when I saw him
He looked like he'd been crying

Across the street, some children watch
They're playing badminton; laughing, too
One of them asks if it's a carpet that they're taking out
But that's you
And, today we can feel
It's like a weight has been lifted

And I'm over the rainbow
Yes, I'm over the rainbow
Can you hear me calling?
Hear me calling you

It may seem cruel, I'm not so sure it really matters now
That's okay
It's only now that I can see things as they really were
What a waste
But, today I'm still smiling
Another day without you here

And I'm over the rainbow
Yes, I'm over the rainbow
Can you hear me calling?
Hear me calling you
