

The Hospital Bed

You've been through enough, now
You deserve some relief
From the pain you've been feeling
The things that you've seen

The sun rises slowly
It brings a new morning
It soothes and it heals you
And I'm here, beside you

You're lying asleep
There in the hospital bed
You've just come around
And you look like a child

The sun rises slowly
It brings a new morning
It soothes and it heals you
And I'm here, beside you

Breathing alone
Sleeping alone
Dreaming alone
